

Transactional Analysis Psychotherapy Training

3-year Course, Dunedin 2019

Applications now open
October 2018

THE PHYSIS
INSTITUTE

Intake interviews are now underway for a 3-year training course in transactional analysis psychotherapy with the Physis Institute, beginning in March 2019. The course leads to an international qualification as a certified transactional analyst, membership of the NZ Association of Psychotherapists and it is currently a pathway to registration as a psychotherapist in New Zealand. You can find more information at: <https://www.jostuthridge.co.nz/transactional-analysis-psychotherapy-training/>

Prerequisites for the training include:

- A relevant tertiary qualification
- Attendance at a TA101 Introductory workshop or completion of the written TA101 assessment.

For enquires, contact Jo Stuthridge at jo@jostuthridge.co.nz or phone 455 1067 and leave a message.

There will be a 2-day introductory TA 101 workshop on 23-24 February in Dunedin.

Trainers:

Jo Stuthridge MSc, TSTA, NZAP, Reg Psychotherapist, Dunedin
Charlotte Daellenbach, TSTA, NZAP, Reg Psychotherapist, Christchurch
Prof Keith Tudor, PhD, TSTA, Auckland
Elana Leigh, MSc, TSTA, Sydney

Enquiries welcome