

Wellington Transactional Analysis Training Institute Inc.

Three Year Psychotherapy Training.

Starting March 2019

Applications are now open.

This course follows the syllabus for Certification as a Transactional Analyst (CTA) as defined by the International Transactional Analysis Association (ITAA).

<https://www.itaaworld.org/training-and-certification-transactional-analysis>

Outcomes of the course include:

- Preparation to sit the Certified Transactional Analyst (CTA) examination.
- The CTA is currently recognised for registration as a psychotherapist by the Psychotherapists Board of Aotearoa New Zealand.
- Provides appropriate training in a theoretical framework that meets the requirements to apply for membership of the New Zealand Association of Psychotherapists (NZAP).

Please visit the WTATI web site <http://www.wellingtonta.ac.nz>

Entry criteria can be found here <http://www.wellingtonta.ac.nz/Entry%20criteria.htm>

The 2019 course hand book will be posted shortly on the web site.

It will be similar to the 2016 handbook which can be found here

<http://www.wellingtonta.ac.nz/Course%20Info%202016.pdf>

For further information (if not found on the web site) please contact:

John Savage jc.savage@icloud.com